THE SOCIETY OF SAINT PIUS X

August 3, 2025 – VIII SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

OPERATION LEPANTO

Our Fundraising effort "Operation Lepanto" is under the Patronage of Our Lady of Victory and St. Philomena. Our Blessed Mother has been so powerful today as she has been at Lepanto in 1570! Please continue to help us with generous donations that will help realize our goal of building a new church that will bring glory and honor to God for generations to come.

Project Final Goal: $7,000,000

Interest earned last month: $10,994.26

Last Week's Donations: $106,519.74

Thank you all for your generous donations.

God Bless

Gregorian Latin Liturgy

Until 1969, the various Catholic Liturgies were all of apostolic origin. The Gregorian Latin liturgy, celebrated in this church, follows the tradition of Saint Peter, the first Pope, and has never undergone any essential change till the present time. Every gesture, every word has been weighed and measured with the assistance of the Holy Ghost for the greatest glory of God and the salvation of souls.

Welcome Visitors!

We thank you for coming. Whether you are just visiting us for a brief time, looking for a spiritual home, are returning to the practice of the Catholic faith or are interested in finding out more about the Catholic Church; we are happy to have you here, as you are. Enter the Holy Temple of the Good Lord to worship Him. Please take time to read this bulletin, to meet with the priest after

MONTHLY DEVOTION: IMMACULATE HEART OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Thou art all fair, O Mary,

The original stain is not in thee.

Thou art the glory of Jerusalem,

Thou, the joy of Israel,

Thou, the great honor of our people

Thou, the advocate of sinners.

O Mary,

O Mary.

Virgin most prudent,

Mother most merciful, Pray for us, Intercede for us with our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Indulgence of 500 days

To receive Holy Communion:

- You must be a baptized Catholic, having made a good confession since the last committed mortal sin, if any, in order to hopefully be in the state of Grace.
- You must believe in the doctrine of Transubstantiation. "For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment upon himself" (1 Cor. 11:29).
- You must observe one hour of Eucharistic fast (except water and medicine. However, we advise to abstain from food and alcohol for three hours and one hour for other liquid before Holy Communion).
- One must not be a public sinner (public adulterer, concubine, public homosexual), or excommunicated, or interdicted.

The most important requirement is to have a great desire to receive the Body, the Blood, the Soul and the Divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ.

- You can humbly approach the Communion rail at any time after the Communion of the priest.
- Then, open your mouth wide and extend smoothly and horizontally your tongue.
- There is no special order, so that nobody should feel compelled to follow a general movement.
- Do not judge your neighbor who abstains from receiving Holy Communion, as there is no obligation to receive it daily. However, "Live in a manner to be able to receive communion every day!" (St. Augustine).

In this Church, the faculty to absolve sins is directly granted to the priests by the Holy Father.

"I urge you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship." Rm 12:1

DRESS CODE

Out of respect for Our Lord Jesus Christ and for the edification of our neighbor, we beg all to appear in Church decent in deportment and modest in dress.

However, no one has the right to question others, especially visitors. It belongs to the parish priest alone to instruct the laity when they repeatedly dress or deport below expectation.

Gentlemen and lads: Neither shorts, T-shirts nor sneakers meet the norms of modesty.

Ladies and girls: Neither shorts, slacks, sleeveless, short nor low-cut dresses meet the norms of modesty.

Furthermore, according to apostolic custom or Church law, gentlemen are bareheaded in church; and ladies are requested to cover their heads. Thank you for your charity.

MINUTE MEDITATIONS by J. E. Moffatt, S.J.

OBLIGED

To those who do me favors I freely own myself obliged. A kindness done calls for a kindness in return. A thoughtful act that proves my friend's unselfish love must be repaid in kind. He who has made me share his goods or who has given of his strength to shore me up when the burdens of life were crushing me down may rightfully hope to find me by his side to lend a helping hand in his hour of need. That is just the ordinary way with Christians and to act otherwise were to degrade myself shamefully.

Yes, such is our way of dealing with our creature friends, but with our Divine Friend, Christ Jesus, we seem to forget all the canons of good breeding.

Who, of all the dear ones whom I call my friends, has done a hundredth part as much for me as has the "Son of God, who loved me and delivered Himself for me?" And yet how little obliged to Him I seem to feel, at least if my ordinary conduct may be taken as an expression of my attitude toward Him! All that I am and all that I have He has given to me – body and soul and life itself. Faith, too, and the wonderful Sacraments, and countless personal gifts, but greatest of all, His very Self immolated for me on Calvary's shameful tree! All this has He done for me, and yet I seem so little concerned to make Him a fitting return!

A trifling service, a petty gift from an earthly friend, and I am all astir to prove my gratitude. But, though Jesus gave me His life, died in torments for me, yet can I find it in my heart to turn my back when He asks a bit of service of me.

Strange friend, am I not?

O Sweetest Heart of Jesus, I implore that I may ever love You more and more.
